

Parents and Teachers!

Let us help you succeed with behaviour!

Parents! Teachers! Are you concerned about children's behaviour?
Would you like a more loving, respectful relationship with your children?
Do you ever yell, give time-outs or punish to get children to cooperate?
Would you like to learn some highly-successful behaviour strategies?

Organise a Special Speaking Presentation for your parents and teachers!

Parents! Time-out chairs, naughty mats, bribes, rewards and punishments—all frustratingly ineffective and highly problematic with today's children. Put simply, they don't work. In today's social climate, our children need more from us than simplistic rewards and punishments. What they need, is for their teachers and parents to be proactive and become skilled in behaviour management! This is where we can help!

Davina Sharry is the Director of Powerful Parenting Australia, is an experienced Early Childhood Specialist and Senior Teacher employed by Education Queensland for over 18 years. Davina has spent many years passionately helping children of all ages achieve great results with their behaviour, and social and emotional development.

Now the author of the unique and highly effective parent-and-child training program 'Powerful Parenting – 12 simple steps to behaviour success!' Davina has firmly positioned herself as an expert in the area of powerful preventative behaviour management, and is committed to giving parents the strategies they need for parenting success, and children the skills they deserve for life!

Parents and Teachers! Please join us to learn these unique, powerful and highly successful strategies!

Help the children in your care learn to:

- Listen effectively; Cooperate; Be happier, calmer and more in-control
- Be responsible for their actions, self-managed and independent
- Problem-solve effectively with words, rather than actions
- Avoid oppositional, defiant or aggressive behaviours
- Replace anti-social or unconfident behaviours with socially- competent, emotionally-strong behaviour.

Regardless of the ages or behaviours you are dealing with, Powerful Parenting will cater to your children's individual behaviour needs, and will work!
